

Independent Living.

At The Village of Westland you'll find an experienced, nurturing staff that understands the importance of making a successful transition from a resident's current home to their new residence. Maintaining individuality and preserving dignity have a direct impact on a resident's adjustment to their new home.

The Village of Westland provides a diverse program of scheduled events on the campus as well as within the community. A dedicated staff coordinates a well-balanced schedule that allows residents to feel a sense of belonging while stimulating their intellect. These programs not only nurture the spirit, but also foster important social and emotional connections with other residents.
